Mew's News

AS ALWAYS, I'VE BEEN SCAMPERING AROUND THIS MONTH GATHERING UP THE JUICIEST BITS OF GOSSIP FOR YOU. THERE'S EXCITING NEWS ON THE GAMECUBE, TALES OF THE POP-TASTIC POKÉMON SINGLE AND MUCH MORE. SO READ ON, POKÉFANS!

CHAMPION!

The fourth series of the fantastic anime Pokémon cartoon has arrived on UK shores via the wonders of Sky One. Showing at 8am, Johto Champions League offers Pokéfans a whole fresh bout of animated action, all brand-new and top notch! Don't fret if you don't have Sky though – ITV is also showing plenty of Pokémon action to give fans their fix, with Champions League set to show again at Christmas after its half-term slot!

The Pokémon TV series has been a huge success, pulling in Pokémaniac viewers in droves. Here at POKEMON WORLD we love it, and the entire crew is often to be found sprawled in front of the TV, bellowing encouragement at Ash and his friends on the box. Needless to say, we're very excited by all this new animated action...

Smashing!

THE FIRST POKÉMON appearance on the GameCube, mammoth fighting game Super Smash Bros Melee, is shaping up very nicely. A shiny new version of the old N64 title, the game stars a certain little electric mouse who will be very familiar to Pokéfans, along with a whole gallery of friendly faces from the Nintendo world.

Fast 'n' furious gameplay will be very much the order of the day in this upcoming title, and from what we've seen of it so far, the graphics are looking just fantastic. We'll be bringing you more news on the game next month in a special preview, but for now, check out these fantastic new screenshots to see just how good our pal Pikachu is looking!

MONSTER OF THE MONTH.....	PAGE 50

It's been a crazy kind of month here at POKÉMON WORLD. There's been so much Pokémon activity, we've been flapping around like excitable Pidgeys trying to keep up with it all! But of course, we couldn't let you down, so we put down our Game Boys, pushed aside our N64s and turned off our televisions for long enough to put together another packed issue, just for you!

First up, we've got a monster Pokémon Crystal review, bulging with exciting info on the game's new features - turn to page 10 now and find out just what all the fuss is about. To help all you 3D battlers out there, we also sat our resident gaming guru, Russ, down with Pokémon Stadium 2 and a bumper supply of pop this month, and have produced an essential guide to this brilliant new game - check it out on page 14.

With this and all the usual goodies, including news, trading card info, posters, competitions and much more, we're having a Poké-party, so what are you waiting for? Grab your party hat and join in the fun...

POKÉMON GOES POP!

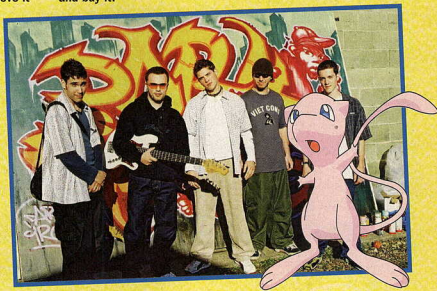

NOT CONTENT WITH topping the games charts, our Poké-pals are now planning an assault on the music charts too – and they're aiming high! A Pokémon single, entitled Gotta Catch 'Em All, will be released on 3 December, and in a bold move it has been timed to enter the battle for the coveted Christmas number-one spot.

Recorded by London-based band 50.Grind (that's Fifty Point Grind, named after the skateboarding manoeuvre) and The Pokémon Allstars, the track has been labelled 'animated nu metal'. Quite what that means we're not sure, but we're sure it's just fantastic!

50.Grind frontman Nick describes the single as "energetic and dynamic" and is confident that it "will certainly appeal to all Pokémon fans".

With big names like Robbie Williams vying for the precious Christmas number-one slot, just how successful the Pokémon will be in their chart-scaling attempts remains to be seen – but if Bob the Builder can do it, so can they! And there's only one way to make sure the little monsters get their Christmas party, and that's to get out there and buy it!

PARTY TIME!

IN CELEBRATION OF the launch of Nintendo's natty new next-gen console GameCube, the big 'N' held a star-studded bash last month at the Nintendo Cube Club in Los Angeles. Sponsored by MTV, the event featured a killer crew of VIP DJs, and offered posh celebrity guests the opportunity to get to grips with the GameCube in Panasonic's 'Cubistically Correct' gameplay environments.

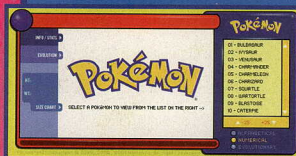

Guests at the event included popstress Mandy Moore, N'Sync's Joey Fatone, Hollywood stars Milla Jovovich, Jason Biggs, Tara Reid and many more famous faces, all eager to take the controls of Nintendo's latest and greatest. It's not just celebrities that get to party Cube Club-style though, as a number of similar events will be taking place around the United States for the more lowly gamer! Quite whether Nintendo will do anything like this when the GameCube comes to Europe next year remains to be seen. Let's hope so – it seems there ain't no party like a Cube Club party!

Weedle's Wicked Web Site

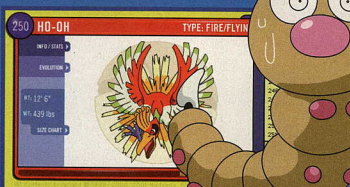

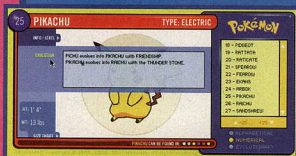

Title: Official Ultimate Pokédex
URL: www.pokemon.com

Our wriggling little Web explorer Weedle has been getting the lowdown on all his friends – and enemies – this month over at the American official Pokémon site. The top folk at Nintendo have now updated their on-site Pokédex to include all the Gold and Silver monster, and have spruced it up to make it all spangly and interactive. Select the Pokémon you want to find out about and you will be presented with a picture of the monster along with a whole bundle of accessible information. There's a section on evolution, information on which games the monster can be found in plus crucial stats on the Pokémon's performance. Also shown is, of course, number and type, and the funky interactive site even shows you how the monster's height compares to a trainer.

This is an essential online destination for every Pokéfan, so don't delay – point your browser to the official Pokémon Web site and hit the Pokédex icon!

CHEEKY MONKEYS!

WAY BACK IN the dark ages – well, 1960 anyway – Sea-Monkeys were launched in America. A biological novelty, these dehydrated eggs are sealed in packets but when added to water, they instantly come to life as prehistoric-like underwater creatures – and they can live for up to two years!

The strange little creatures have become hugely popular over the years, and games publisher Just Play has now launched a super-spangly PC game featuring the wee critters.

This fantastic artificial intelligence simulation game for the whole family is released nationwide on 16 November, but thanks to the top folk at Just Play, we've got three copies to give away. And that's not all, as the lucky winners will also receive a pack of eggs and their very own Space Shuttle aquarium for their monkeys to grow, play and thrive in!

To stand a chance of winning one of these watery wonders, just answer this simple question:

Q. WHICH OF THESE CREATURES LIVE IN THE SEA?

- A. CAMELS
- B. FISH
- C. MOTHS

When you think you know the answer, write it on a postcard and send it to the address below, making sure it reaches us no later than 28 December. Sea-Monkey Competition, Issue 12, Pokémon World, Paragon Publishing, Paragon House, St Peter's Road, Bournemouth, Dorset BH1 2JS

POKÉMON WORLD

A Helping Hand

CALIFORNIA-BASED COMPANY Versus Books has recently launched a range of strategy guides in the UK, including three Pokémon books. Officially licensed by Nintendo, the company has produced bumper high-quality guides to Pokémon Gold and Silver, plus the brand-new titles Pokémon Crystal and Pokémon Stadium 2.

The books will all be produced in full colour with a comprehensive walkthrough of every level, including highly detailed maps, and will each come with a full-colour poster of the featured game to adorn your bedroom wall. The Pokémon Gold and Silver Collector's Edition and Pokémon Crystal guide, priced £9.99 each, both feature a huge Pokédex, plus handy appearance charts, as well as an in-depth walkthrough. The Pokémon Stadium 2 guide, meanwhile, will offer players key stats about every single Pokémon, plus essential info on the mini-games and tournaments, and will be priced at £7.99.

Hop down to your local videogames emporium now to pick up one of these gigantic guides – or, thanks to the top people at Versus Books, why not just answer this easy question to stand a chance of winning the set. We've got five copies of each guide to give away, so put your thinking caps on!

Celebi On the Big Screen?

RUMOUR

HAS IT that the fourth Pokémon movie will be coming to Europe next year. As we reported in issue 9, the film, entitled Celebi: A Timeless Encounter over in Japan, was released in the Land Of The Rising Sun in June. The movie focuses on the ultra-rare 251st Pokémon, and promises to be a monster adventure, so let's just hope the whispers prove true! We'll keep you posted.

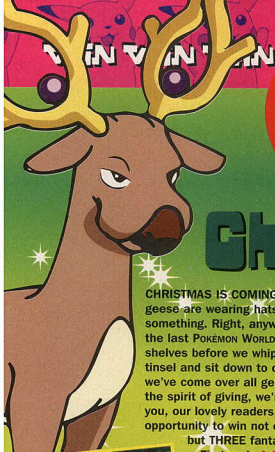

And The Winner Is...

You may remember that last issue, we mentioned that all the Celebi distributors from the Pokémon Celebi Tour would, upon returning their Celebi cartridges empty, be entered into a prize draw. We can now announce that the lucky blighter who won the monster prize – £2,510 to spend in Toy 'R' Us and a bundle of goodies from the Pokémon Center in Japan – was one Chris Payne, aged 15, from Poole in Dorset. Well done, Chris – we're not jealous... honest!

1. All entries must be received by 28 December 2001. 2. There is no cash alternative. 3. Editor's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into. 4. No employee of Paragon Publishing or any company with products on offer within this competition is eligible to enter. 5. Only one entry per person. 6. By entering, competitors agree to be bound by the rules and requirements of the competition. 7. You may be sent news about products and opportunities from related companies. Christmas DVDs

CHRISTMAS IS COMING and the geese are wearing hats... or something. Right, anyway, as this is the last POKEMON WORLD to hit the shelves before we whip out the tinsel and sit down to our turkey, we've come over all generous. In the spirit of giving, we're offering you, our lovely readers, the opportunity to win not one, not two but THREE fantastic DVDs!

First up is A CHRISTMAS CAROL, a classic festive flick if ever there was one. It tells the tale of a miserable old man, Ebenezer Scrooge, who hates Christmas, but is taught the true meaning of Yuletide by ghosts who show him his own past, present and potential future. Also up for grabs is the modern-day version of classic movie MIRACLE ON 34TH STREET, in which a department store Santa, attempts to convince the 'non-believers' around him that he is, in fact, the genuine article. Last, but by no means least, in this brilliant Christmas bundle is animated adventure ANASTASIA, which is based on the real-life story of the disappearance of the Grand Duchess of Russia, and tells the touching story of the headstrong young orphan struggling to piece together clues about the family that she was separated from as a child.

Out now, these three discs are each priced at £15.99, but thanks to the lovely people at 20th Century Fox Home Entertainment, we've got ten copies of each to give away. To stand a chance of winning just answer this easy festive question:

- Q. WHICH OF THESE IS NOT TRADITIONAL CHRISTMAS FOOD?
- TURKEY
 - CHRISTMAS PUDDING
 - RICE PUDDING

Dr. Dolittle & Dr. Dolittle 2

THERE'S ANIMAL ACTION aplenty in this fun-packed double dose of top comedy. Dr. Dolittle 2 sees the hilarious doctor, played by Eddie Murphy, return in the ultimate man versus nature showdown, in the midst of the animal kingdom's first strike! Not only has our animal-friendly hero got to look after his patients (both two and four-legged!), but it seems there's a forest that needs saving, and Dolittle's the doc for the job!

Available to buy from 26 November, Dr. Dolittle is the perfect medicine for those winter blues, and to make things even more exciting, the film comes packaged with the original movie for good measure! At £15.99 for the VHS and £19.99 for the packed DVD, it's well worth getting your claws into, but thanks to the top people at 20th Century Fox Home Entertainment, we've got ten copies of the video to give away! All you need to do is answer this question:

- Q. WHO PLAYS DR. DOLITTLE IN THE FILMS?
- EDDIE MURPHY
 - EDWINA CURRY
 - EDDIE 'THE EAGLE' EDWARDS

TV'S FUNKY SISTERS

Mary-Kate and Ashley are about to score a hit with this hilarious full-length movie. The terrible twosome star as Emma and Sam Stanton, two very different sisters who are required to do some fancy footwork to switch places when they find themselves on mismatched teams in a football tournament! Switching Goals on VHS is in the shops now priced at £12.99, and comes with an exclusive mini-poster. Thanks to the lovely people at Warner Home Video, though, we've got ten copies to give away. To stand a chance of winning, just answer this question:

Q: What sport does David Beckham play?

- A. Golf
- B. Football
- C. Tennis

Wizard Of Oz

Follow the magical tale of Dorothy, the gal from Kansas who awakes one morning to find herself in the mysterious Land Of Oz, and sets off down the yellow brick road to meet the great wizard of the land, picking up a few curious characters along the way! This enchanting film is an absolute classic and has been specially spruced up for its 5 November release. At £14.99 for the video and £19.99 on DVD, it's well worth the cash too, but thanks to the fine people at Warner Home Video, you could be off to see the wizard for nowt, because we've got ten copies to give away. To enter, just answer this teaser:

Q: Where do Aussies come from?

- A. Australia
- B. England
- C. Lapland

Please send your entries, labelled with the name of the competition to the address below, making sure they reach us no later than 28 December. And don't forget to include your own details so we can send you your prize!

LET'S GO AND EXPLORE
JOHTO ONCE MORE -
AFTER ALL, WE'VE STILL GOTTA CATCH 'EM ALL!

POKÉMON CRYSTAL

WHAT'S NEW, PUSSYCAT?

IN COMPARISON TO Red, Blue and Yellow, there are tons of differences in Pokémon Crystal... it's set in a different world for starters! The land of Johto is somewhat bigger than Kanto (although the whole of Kanto is included as an option once you've conquered the Elite Four of Johto) and features plenty of new locations to visit and people to meet. If you've become attached to some of the Pokémon in the original games, you might want to say goodbye because some of them just aren't available in Crystal – for example, the original Pokémon you get to choose from (Squirtle, Charmander and Bulbasaur) can't be found ANYWHERE! You can now also breed your own Pokémon by leaving them in the DayCare Centres around Johto and even find Pokémon eggs that hatch into new Pokémon such as Togepl. As far as changes between Crystal and Gold or Silver go, though, it's far less drastic. The biggest change is that you're now got the option of playing as either a boy or girl trainer... finally, the female Pokémon fans get some recognition! Some of the graphics have been changed in certain locations, a lot of the trading opportunities are different, Pokémon pop up in different places, and you can only play Crystal if you've got a GBC (sorry, old Game Boy owners) but other than that, it's business as usual...

BACK TO THE OLD NEIGHBOURHOOD

IT'S TRUE ENOUGH that Johto is a big place – it'll take you absolutely ages to explore everywhere and even longer to catch all the Pokémon there! Of course, all good things do eventually come to an end and Pokémon Crystal is no exception; you'll soon be an expert Pokémon Trainer and make it to Victory Road, where the Elite Four will be waiting. Beat them and you'll be the greatest Pokémon Trainer in the whole of Johto... yay! But wait – what's this? The SS Anne is docking in the bay and waiting for you to come aboard? It looks like you're heading back to Kanto, just like in Gold and Silver! Yep, if you've played any of the original Pokémon games like Red, Blue or Yellow then you'll instantly recognise the land of Kanto – all the cities and Gym Leaders are here for you to face, although they're all a bit tougher to beat this time around. Still, if you've managed to get through the Johto League then coming out on top won't be too difficult... will it? Well, that's just something you'll have to try and find out for yourself – we don't want to spoil the surprise for you too much, do we?

FIND OUT HOW YOU CAN WIN A COPY OF POKÉMON CRYSTAL ON PAGE 30!

POKÉMON CRYSTAL

CALL ME!

YOUR BRIGHT AND spangly Pokémon Gear (or Pokégear for short, if you're feeling clever) really comes in handy when you need something or someone in a hurry. An important aspect of the gear is that it holds twice as many items as in Red and Blue, plus it sorts everything into easy-to-find 'pockets' that keeps all your essential items such as Potions and Berries separate from your Pokéballs and TMs. As well as a useful map that can be collected early in your adventures, the gear also comes equipped with a mobile phone so you can reach out and touch somebody, and many of the phone conversations in Crystal are new! Always be sure to talk to the people you meet in Johto, even after they challenge you to a Pokémon match – they might be willing to give you their phone number. Each person has a special interest or hobby; when they come across something they like and think you'll be interested in, they'll give you a buzz to tell you about it. Then it's up to you whether you head on over to see what all the fuss is about or simply carry on your adventure. It might very well be worth a look... whether it's a Bug Catching tournament near Violet City or a swarm of hungry Pokémon gathering in Sprout Tower, you don't want to miss out on anything!

A POKÉMON may be able to move

WHERE ARE

ANYONE WHO HAS been holding out for Crystal, rather than buying Gold or Silver, will be looking forward to meeting the 99 new monsters on their travels through Johto. For starters, there are two new kinds of Pokémon (Dark and Steel) that are added to the other categories – you'll need to know their weaknesses before you can try and take them on. The new Pokémon are a wild and wonderful bunch too, ranging from new evolutions that we never knew existed (like Pichu and Hitmontop) to totally new Pokémon such as Bellossom, Cyndaquil, Totodile and Pineco. And making up for the removal of the Legendary Bird Pokémon that we all loved are

TIME IS ON MY SIDE

UNLIKE IN THE original Red, Blue and Yellow Pokémon games, time now plays an important part in your adventure. After setting the clock correctly at the very beginning of the game, the day and night occurs in real-time throughout your travels – if you turn on your Game Boy in the evening, you'll see that the sun has set in Johto and night is coming, while playing during the day allows you to get a bit of a tan. This is important for a number of reasons, most specifically because not all Pokémon like to come out when the sun is up; some

Pokémon, like the Hoothoot, are nocturnal and so don't appear until the dead of night. Trees only provide you with berries once a day, so you'll have to wait a full 24 hours before you can return to pick some more. What's more, certain places will be off limits during the night as the people in the various cities across Johto go to sleep... yes, the clock really is that important! Don't set it wrong when you start, or you'll end up getting really confused...

I am KOGA of the ELITE FOUR.

THEY NOW?

certain other legendary Pokémon – Entei, Raikou and the star of Crystal, Suicune, who will pop up when you least expect it! Gold and Silver players will also be surprised to find monsters lurking in different locations around the game, which makes a nice change. Unfortunately, whatever you've heard, you won't be able to find Celebi anywhere... like Mew, it's one of those special Pokémon that is only given to deserving Pokémon Trainers. We've got one, but that's only because we recently visited the Celebi Tour! Sorry!

IS IT ALL WORTH IT?

WELL, THAT DEPENDS on your point of view. As a Pokémon game in its own right, Pokémon Crystal rules the roost – the story's really exciting, the Pokémon are diverse and there's absolutely loads to do. Unfortunately, the major sticking point is that all of this has already been done in the form of both GOLD AND SILVER, which makes it kind of old in the interest department. Sure, if you're a Pokémon fanatic then you'll absolutely have to own 'em all but for others... well, it's a little bit pointless. There are updates, like a few new characters (the Moves Tutor in Goldenrod City is a particularly helpful chap!), different trades, varied frequency and locations of monsters and alterations to a few level-ups, but they don't really alter the experience too notably. That's why the recommendation we've got has to be this – if you're new to the world of Pokémon then you absolutely, positively have to own this game... hey, you can even trade with your Gold and Silver-owning pals! However, those of you who've already explored the world of Johto might want to consider giving Crystal a miss – you could use the money to buy yourself a few of the Pokémon movies on video instead! We've tried to be as fair as possible so whichever group of Pokémon fans you fall into, you can simply add or subtract a point from our final score as you like...

GUIDE

KNOW YOUR POKÉMON

EVERY POKÉMON IS different and each has its own strengths and weaknesses. Spotting your opponent's weakness can lead to many easy battles, but you also need to know when your opponent may have the upper hand. Here is a brief guide to the different Pokémon types showing their strengths and weaknesses.

CHANGING POKÉMON

MAKING CHANGES TO your team is vital if you want to be a successful Pokémon trainer. Switching out of a battle to reserve energy or stop nasty side effects can really make the difference when you reach the later stages of a competition.

TEAM CHOICE

WHEN ENTERING A battle you will be asked to select a team of six Pokémon from your Game Boy cartridge or the hired rental Pokémon. Try to include many different types of Pokémon in order to make it tough for your opponent to spot a weakness. Team selection is extremely important.

THE ACADEMY

THE BEST PLACE to practise as well as learn new techniques is the Pokémon Academy. Earl will teach you all he knows about Pokémon, starting with very basic techniques and progressing on to finer details of combos and damage multipliers. This is the best place to start as you will learn all the techniques you will need to beat the rival trainers. Earl starts by giving lectures about the different skills needed by the modern Pokémon trainer. After each lecture you must answer a question about the subject and only when you have answered correctly can you progress. When you have finished all the lectures in the class, you must then sit a test to check that the knowledge has really sunk in! In order to pass you need to answer 80 percent of the ten questions correctly. The final section is all about putting these skills into practice, and you will face a number of trainers to try out what you have learned in the lessons. If you beat all the trainers you will then receive a medal and can move on to the next class. There are three different class levels to complete.

TRAINER CLASS

BATTLE 1: GAMPER COLE

Opponent's Pokémon: Exeggutor, Jumpluff, Meganium, Parasect, Sunflora and Weepinbell

Recommended Team: Beedrill, Growlithe and Pidgeotto

Tactics: You only have one move to choose from in this battle, so the team choice is the most important part. Start the battle with either Growlithe or Pidgeotto as their attacks are super-effective against Grass type Pokémon. You should win this battle easily.

BATTLE 2: SUPER NERD MELVIN

Opponent's Pokémon: Arcanine, Charmeleon, Flareon, Magmar, Ninetales and Quilava.

Recommended Team: Miltank, Furret and Stantler

Tactics: Melvin likes to use Fire Pokémon to battle and this is your chance to cool him down. Start the battle with Furret and use Surf to wash your opponent away. If Melvin gets lucky and manages to knock out your Pokémon, switch to Miltank and keep rolling until you win. With the right team you should have no problems here.

BATTLE 3: SCHOOLBOY CARSON

Opponent's Pokémon: Donphan, Golem, Scizor, Sneasel, Steelix and Umbreon

Recommended Team: Bellossom, Hitmonlee and Magmar

Tactics: This battle is a little more complicated as the team you are up against could be several different types. The idea is to pick a team that can expose your opponent's weaknesses to tip the balance in your favour. Start the battle with Hitmonlee, as Schoolboy Carson almost always leads with Umbreon, and then use the Jump Kick to knock out this Pokémon. For the next fight wait to see which Pokémon is brought into the arena and then choose a replacement for Hitmonlee. If Scizor is used then switch to Magmar to kill him off in one blow, but if any other Pokémon appears, use Bellossom to drain them of all energy.

POKÉMON STADIUM 2

BATTLE 4: SWIMMER CLAYTON

Opponent's Pokémon: Cloyster, Grimer, Mr Mime, Muk, Tentacool and Tentacruel

Recommended Team: Dragonair, Murkrow and Pinsir

Tactics: This battle is easy when you know what to expect. All of your Pokémon only have moves that do a set amount of damage and are unaffected by type. Use Pinsir to get the ball rolling and use Seismic Toss to knock out as many of your opponent's team as possible. If you're lucky you could win this battle without even having to switch!

BATTLE 5: YOUNGSTER JONATHAN

Opponent's Pokémon: Exeggutor, Houndoom, Houndour, Ivysaur, Meganium and Venusaur

Recommended Team: Aerodactyl, Croconaw, Delibird

Tactics: Again this battle is about team selection, but you will also need to use a combination technique to cause maximum damage and avoid your opponent's Solarbeam attacks. Solarbeam takes two moves before the power is unleashed and Jonathan will always try for the big hit right from the start. This you can use to your advantage by selecting Aerodactyl to start the battle. Use your Scary Face move to stall for one turn and gain a distinct speed advantage over your opponent. On your next turn choose Fly to rise up into the air and avoid the Solarbeam, then the following turn you will land your blow-dealing damage to the bewildered Jonathan. You can then continue to Fly until you are knocked out. Use the same technique for all of Jonathan's team and you should win the fight without taking any damage at all.

BATTLE 6: PICKNICKER CYNDY

Opponent's Pokémon: Furret, Quagsire, Slowbro, Slowking, Slugma and Snorlax

Recommended Team: Fearow, Granbull and Lickitung

Tactics: All of Cyndy's Pokémon use the Amnesia technique which increases their special defence. In order to win this battle you need to know the difference between special attacks and physical attacks to ensure you cause maximum damage on each strike. Use Granbull to start the battle as his Return move can perform really well against all of Cyndy's team. If you need to make a change Fearow or Lickitung can also pack a fairly meaty physical punch!

BATTLE 7: LASS NANCY

Opponent's Pokémon: Alpom, Charameleon, Gligar, Horsea, Pidgeotto and Quilava

Recommended Team: Eevee, Golbat and Noctowl

Tactics: The final battle in the trainer class is tricky. All of Nancy's Pokémon rely on evasion techniques to dodge your attacks, as well as reducing your hit accuracy by using Sand Attack. To counteract these, you need to ensure that you can cancel these changes or guarantee a hit every turn. Choose Eevee to start the battle, then use the Swift attack to ensure a direct hit almost every time. If you're lucky you will win the battle without ever having to swap.

GYM LEADER CLASS

BATTLE 1: POKÉMANIAC JOSEPH

Opponent's Pokémon: Clefable, Kangaskhan, Miltank, Snubbull, Stantler and Ursaring

Recommended Team: Gastly, Lanturn and Raichu

Tactics: Unless you look very closely at your opponent's team you are unlikely to spot the main weakness. All of Joseph's Pokémon are female and so you can use your all-male team to good advantage. Start the battle with Raichu and then use Attract to strike your opponent's weak spot. When the opponent has fallen for your charms use the other attacks to take them down. For an added bonus you can also confuse your opponent using Sweet Kiss or Confuse Ray, which will give you a little back up should they fall out of love.

BATTLE 2: KIMONO GIRL NAOMI

Opponent's Pokémon: Gastly, Gengar, Haunter, Magcargo, Misdreavus and Murkrow

Recommended Team: Politoed, Poliwhirl and Primeape

Tactics: Naomi normally starts with Murkrow, so select Primeape as your leader and take it down using the Berry to remedy the Confusion side effect of Thrash. Leave Primeape in the arena until Confusion strikes again, then switch Pokémon. Use the Belly Drum move to multiply your attack power then rest on the next turn to replace HP. The Berries will wake them from their sleep leaving you to knock out your opponent using the powered-up Mud Slap attack.

BATTLE 3: LASS TAMMY

Opponent's Pokémon: Bellossom, Gyarados, Magcargo, Meganium, Sunflora and Tangela

Recommended Team: Mareep, Spinarak and Wooper

Tactics: In order to win this battle you need to know the right time to switch Pokémon and how to spot your opponent's weakness. Tammy is a very tricky opponent who can change tactics at any time, trying to pick holes in your defences. Use Wooper to take out Magcargo, and switch to Mareep should Gyarados enter the arena. Should any of the other Grass Pokémon be placed into the arena use Spinarak to poison them and take them out.

BATTLE 4: YOUNGSTER DUSTIN

Opponent's Pokémon: Dragonite, Dugtrio, Golduck, Skarmory, Steelix and Sudowoodo

Recommended Team: Aerodactyl, Magnetron and Seadra

Tactics: Seadra can easily defeat Dragonite with the Twister move and Aerodactyl can take on Dugtrio, Sudowoodo and Steelix using Earthquakes. Should you face Golduck or Skarmory switch to Magnetron and use the Lock-on move followed by Zap Cannon to bring your enemy down to Earth!

BATTLE 5: SCHOOLBOY NOLAN

Opponent's Pokémon: Blissey, Chansey, Clefairy, Elekid, Ledyba and Ledian

Recommended Team: Jynx, Mr Mime and Staryu

Tactics: This can be a really tough battle if you get poisoned early in the fight, but defence is the key to winning. Start with Mr Mime and set up a Light Screen, then attack for all you're worth until you fall foul of a Toxic attack. Switch to Jynx. Remember to replace your Light Screen as soon it runs out, so keep Staryu on the bench just in case.

ASK Professor YEW

I've had a JOLLY MONTH SITTING IN FRONT OF THE FIRE TRYING TO BREED SPINARAKS... WELL, YOU'VE GOT TO HAVE A HOBBY, HAVEN'T YOU? WHO'S FIRST UP THIS TIME THEN?

FLASH ALERT

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

I would really like to know where I can find the HM Flash in Silver, and also Rock Smash and Rainbow Wing. I try and try but simply cannot find them. Help?!

Lyndsey Warnett

Well, Lyndsey,

For the crucial Flash HM, you're going to have to fight your way to the top of Sprout Tower, where the Head Sage will present you with the gift. Rock Smash is available to buy in the Goldenrod Department Store, or obtainable on Route 36, and Rainbow Wing is a little tricky for Silver players, but you'll eventually find it in Pewter City. Not for quite a while, though, if you don't have Flash yet!

ICE PATH CRACKED!

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

I love Pokémon! I have got seven badges in Pokémon Gold, and I really want the eighth badge, but I can't get through the Ice Path. Please, please, please tell me what to do! I really need your help! Jennifer Walker

Well, Jennifer,

It's nice to be needed. This is an old chestnut, so let's get it straight once and for all. When you reach the second patch of ice (the first one's simple) make your way to the top right corner, and then head down, left, up, left, down, right, down, right, up, right, and you'll get through to the other side. Now to get the Waterfall HM, enter the next Ice Patch high up, then head up, left, down, left, up and right. Now you've got to make your way out. Ha ha!

SHORT & SWEET

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

Dear Professor Yew, I've got a few questions for you:
1. How can I find HM2 on Silver?
2. Where can I find Suicune on Crystal?
3. How can I get to Blackthorn City?
Many thanks dude,
Dean Dawson, Swindon

Well, dude, er, I mean Dean, Wow. How can you be looking for Suicune on Crystal if you haven't even got the second HM in Silver? The Fly HM is received from Chuck's wife in Clanwood City just after you beat Chuck - easy as pie! And what d'you mean, you can't find Blackthorn City? It's on the map, dude! The only way to get there is through the Ice Path though (see below). Oh, and by the way, you really cannot miss Suicune in Crystal, just play the game as normal and he'll pop up at the right time. Well, be certainly did for me.

ASK PROFESSOR YEW

SUDOWOOD OR TREE?

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

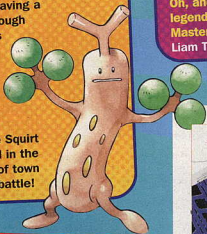

I have three question to ask you about Pokémon Gold:

1. Where do you find the Surf HM?
2. In Goldenrod City Radio Tower, how do you get past the man guarding the doors of the Director's room?
3. Near the National Park is a tree that wobbles when you touch it. A Pokémon like a Sudowood or a plant? And how do you get past it?

Caitlin Murphy, Rochdale

Well, Caitlin, The Surf HM is given to you by the owner of the Dance Theatre in Erueteak City. Just defeat the Kimono Girls and it's yours! The Radio Tower in Goldenrod is very straightforward, Caitlin, it's just battle after battle until you get the Key Card! However, if you're having a problem getting through the switch area, it's the furthest one first, then the next, and finally the switch closest to the entrance. And, yes, that is a Sudowood. Get the Squirt Bottle from the girl in the north-east corner of town and splash it into battle!

THEORY OF EVOLUTION

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

When do Slugma and Marill evolve and does Slugma learn Flamethrower? Where do you get Politoed and Raikou? Please can you help me?

Benjamin

Well, Benjamin, Raikou, as one of the legendary dogs, will appear anywhere in Johto after you reach the Burned Tower. Politoed evolves from Poliwhirl, though you may need to use the King's Rock on one. Slugma usually evolves into Magcargo at Level 38, and Marill evolves into Azurmarill at Level 18, if my memory serves me well.

ORANGE ISLAND CONUNDRUM

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

Can you get to the Orange Islands in Gold and if so, can you tell me how please? Oh, and can you get the legendary dogs without a Master Ball?

Liam Turner

Well, Liam, There are no Orange Islands in Johto or Kanto - I should know, I live there! There are Whirl Islands, for which you need the Whirlpool HM and, of course, Cinnebar Island. You only get one Master Ball, and this is possibly best saved up for Suicune. Ultra Balls may just do the trick, but it's very unlikely unless you have the Pokémon on one blip of energy, and knocked out cold, which isn't easy.

THAT'S ENOUGH OF ALL THIS RUDENESS. EXCEPT TO SAY TO JILLIAN ALDEN - HAPPY BIRTHDAY. AND THE XPLORER CODE FOR CELEBI COULD WELL BE $ODIGET64. SEE YOU NEXT TIME!

CHEAT!

Dear POKÉMON WORLD,

I have a Game Boy Color and quite a lot of games. Two of them are Pokémon games, Pokémon Yellow and Pokémon Silver.

I need a bit of help on Pokémon Silver – when I say a bit, I mean a lot – so I thought, why not get a cheat cartridge. I was looking for about a week in most videogame stores, but wherever I looked, I couldn't find a single one, so I really need your help. I wanted to ask you, where can I find a cheat cartridge and how much will it cost? And is it true that you can get Mew and Celebi using a cheat cartridge? Can you help me?

Jorge Palomino, Maidenhead

We're here to help, Jorge – that's our job! Sorry to hear you're having a spot of bother with Pokémon Silver – you're not alone, we promise you! You should be able to find an Xploder cheats cartridge in any good high street videogame store – why not try asking the nice people in your local emporium to order one for you? Failing that, if you have Internet access, you could always check out EB's online store at www.eb.uk.com, which offers the Xploder Lite for £14.99 and the Xploder GB for £19.99. The Xploder cartridge allows you to battle against any Pokémon, including both Mew and Celebi – go to www.xploder.co.uk for more info!

CHANGING ROOMS

Dear POKÉMON WORLD,

I am having my room decorated and we're going to put a giant Suicune on the wall, but we couldn't find a picture of the Suicune on the front of Pokémon Crystal big enough. I know it's a very stupid question, but please could you put a giant picture of Suicune in your next issue?

Helen Pearson, Clacton-on-Sea

By now you should have spotted the giant Suicune lurking on the centre pages, Helen – hope he's big enough. Good luck with the decorating! It sounds like the kind of room we like here at POKÉMON WORLD – none of this flowery rubbish, we want Pokémon!

TIME CHECK

Dear POKÉMON WORLD,

I am nine years of age. I have got Pokémon Yellow, Gold, Trading Card Game and Pinball. On Gold, I have got 149 Pokémon. I have some questions:

1. I would like to know when will Crystal be out in the UK?
2. On Gold, how do you get Togepi and Chansey to evolve?
3. How long do you get to complete Gold and Yellow? From your friend, Glen Dyars, Shrewsbury PS I am looking forward to seeing all the games in the future.

Wow Glen, you're certainly a serious Pokéfan! In answer to your questions, Crystal is on the shelves now – turn to page 10 for our full review of the game. As for your second query, that's really a question for Professor Yew, but we consulted with the ageing academic and he informed us that you'll need both Togepi and Chansey to become attached to you in order for them to evolve – at least, we think that's what he said, he had a mouthful of humbugs at the time! As for your final question, there is no time limit for the Pokémon games – you can keep coming back to them whenever you want!

Energy Absorb
Psy Beam
Secret Power

Evolution: From Raticate

Brief Description:

This Pokémon is quite tricky to get because it evolves from Raticate. In order to get Ancient Mouse, you must make your Raticate super-happy, take him to the Ice Path and give him Moon Stone.

PLAY YOUR CARDS RIGHT!

The latest Neo expansion has arrived in the USA and we bring you the complete checklist to whet your appetite. Pikachu is also set for another birthday, so read on to find out more!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY AGAIN

ONCE AGAIN PIKACHU is the talk of the town in the land of the rising sun, as a brand-new Birthday Pikachu has emerged. The latest Pikachu promo comes free with the Pokémon card book (volume six) and fans have already been going mad for it. Each of the six Pokémon card books has had a free promo with it, so let's recap in case you missed any of the others.

- VOL 1 MANKEY
- VOL 2 PSYDUCK
- VOL 3 JYNX
- VOL 4 SUNKERN
- VOL 5 HOPPIP
- VOL 6 BIRTHDAY PIKACHU

REVELATIONS

THE THIRD EXPANSION set in the Pokémon Neo series has finally arrived in the stores in the USA, with another 64 cool cards to collect and play with. No release date has been confirmed for the UK at this time, but it should be arriving before Christmas. Although only 64 cards appear on the checklist, there are also going to be two further additional cards in the set, with Shining Magikarp and Shining Gyarados as additional ultra-rare cards. Keep your eyes open for this new expansion.

GAMEBOY ADVANCE

WELCOME ONCE AGAIN TO THE ONLY BREAKDOWN OF WHAT'S HAPPENING IN THE FUNNY, POCKET-SIZED WORLD OF THE GAME BOY ADVANCE THAT YOU'LL EVER NEED!

NEWS

FANS OF SMALL green men (no, not Alan Titchmarsh) will be over the proverbial moon to hear that 3DO is porting the ever-so-successful Army Men licence to the GBA! Hurray! This means that you'll soon be able to play as a platoon of those little green fellas, as they battle their way bravely through hostile terrain in the face of great danger. It always seemed logical to us that the tickle soldiers should make an appearance on the small console, and now it's finally going to happen. There's no confirmed release date yet, but the game should be available around Christmas, so you'd better look out for it! Dismissed!

CASPER

PUBLISHER MICROIDS PRICE £34.99

EVERYONE LOVES A friendly ghost, right? Here at POKEMON WORLD, our favourite friendly ghost has got to be Casper, who's just appeared out of thin air in his very own GBA adventure.

It's your job to steer the translucent hero past all sorts of ghoulish obstacles as he tries to make his way round a mansion packed with sleeping people. Casper can also shape-shift to avoid mishaps, becoming either flat, cushion-shaped or even turning into a scary monster if need be!

Even though the game was a great laugh, however, it is a little on the tricky side, with all sorts of creepy goings-on hampering our deceased friend right from the word go. Still, if you're prepared to stick with it, and you're a confirmed Casper fanatic, this game can be a pretty rewarding experience. Graphically it's pretty ace too, with Casper going all translucent, just like he did in the movie, so check it out!

X-MEN: REIGN OF APOCALYPSE

PUBLISHER ACTIVISION PRICE £34.99

THE X-MEN HAVE made a big impact on the cinema-going public with their recent movie, and on PlayStation gamers with Mutant Academy. Now they fancy a piece of the GBA as well! Can you believe the cheek of these mutant fellows?

Unfortunately, as comic licences go, this one's pretty gosh-darned poor, as it's just another sideways-scrolling beat-'em-up that you've played a million and one times before. If you're a die-hard fan of Wolverine and his mutant homies, rent this, but we don't suggest parting with £34.99 of your hard-earned cash for it.

WITH ALL THE BIG NAMES RUSHING TO THE GBC THIS MONTH, IT'S NOT BEEN A BUSY TIME FOR THE POOR OLD GBC. NEVER MIND, THERE ARE STILL SOME EXCITING TITLES ON THE SHELVES!

NEWS

KIDDY GAME SPECIALIST
JoWood has a frightfully festive fun-bundle coming out in time for stocking-filler duty in the shape of impressive GBC platformer Santa Claus Junior. In this detailed, massive game you take on the role of a little boy who is forced to don the old beardy chap's robes at Christmas to make sure this year's deliveries go to plan. With 64 levels, bonus areas and clever difficulty levels, this interesting adventure is actually out to buy already, but we'll give you the full lowdown a little closer to Christmas. It's still far too early to get festive just yet!

NY RACE

DEVELOPER KOCH MEDIA
PRICE £24.99

BASED ON THE modern classic The Fifth Element, this innovative racer casts you as Korben Dallas, a New York taxi driver from the 23rd Century. However, instead of saving the world from total destruction like in the movie, here you have to... win a few races. Very much in the mould of Star Wars Episode One Racer, this futuristic top-down racing game unfortunately lacks interesting link-up options, but more than makes up for this in speed and difficulty. Each track is played on two levels, so you can soar up in the sky for greater speed, but have to descend to avoid obstacles. On the way you pick up faster and faster space vehicles to help you in your quest to be the champion. Definitely worth a good look – and don't forget Extreme Ghostbusters, Kirikou and Gremkins, all out from Koch Media this month!

THE WORLD IS NOT ENOUGH

PUBLISHER ELECTRONIC ARTS
PRICE £24.99

JAMES BOND 007 is only likely to make this one appearance on the GBC, so make the best of it. It's a more than entertaining Metal Gear Solid-type adventure which pits Bond against the psychotic naughtiness of Reynard, who's going to destroy the world in some way. You make your way from level to level either killing everyone or trying not to be noticed as you carry out M's wishes and save the day. The graphics are brilliantly detailed, even if the sound's not up to much, and any game that has John Cleese in it has to be worth the asking price.

PUBLISHER	ATARI
PRICE	£3999
CONSOLE	PLAYSTATION2

HERALDED BY GAMERS as the first game ever to feature totally realistic water effects, Splashdown is a jet ski racer game which features the Sea-Doo brand of water racers. The game looks fantastic graphically and the water is amazing! There are 20 race courses to unlock from exotic locations around the world, including Australia, Hawaii, Indonesia and the swamps of Southern America.

Each track has some really big air jumps, which give you the chance to pull off one of around twenty tricks, and performing good-looking stunts fills up your Performance meter, which keep your bike (or whatever it is) running and in tip-top condition. There are also beacons for you to race around, and if you go round them in the wrong direction your Sea-Doo stalls and you get left behind in the race!

Fast, testing racing, accurate handling and well-created scenery and tracks makes Splashdown a watery arcade treat for the sea-biker in all of us!

WWF SMACKDOWN! JUST BRING IT

PUBLISHER	THQ
PRICE	£3999
CONSOLE	PLAYSTATION2

OOOF! FOLLOWING HOT on the heels of the massive success of WWF Smackdown on the PSone, this new title is the ultimate! Just Bring It is bang up-to-date with every wrestler's details, affiliations, outfits and info, and brings over-the-top violence and showmanship home to roost. With an incredible line-up of moves, realistic graphics and character animation, and enough sweat and tinsel to start your own circus, WWF Smackdown tops it all off with an expansive Create Wrestler mode. The most impressive sports entertainment game in the THQ range so far, this is a must-have for all WWF fans.

ALL THE BEST

POKÉMON RED/BLUE 4/5 GAME BOY COLOR

In September 1999 Pokémon arrived in the UK and went on to sell over a million copies. A small boy is given his first Pokémon by Professor Oak and asked to catch and train all 151 Pokémon to become a Pokémon Master. You must train your monster to fight and then try to outwit the wild Pokémon hiding in long grass and caves. These games started it all, and they are still great fun to play today!

POKÉMON YELLOW 4/5

GAME BOY COLOR

After the success of the cartoon series, Nintendo released this follow-up to the first two games. Pokémon Yellow is similar to Pokémon Red and Blue only you will receive Pikachu as your very first Pokémon and he will follow you around all the time, like in the cartoon. You will still need to trade to catch 'em all – but other than that, it is almost the same game as Red and Blue.

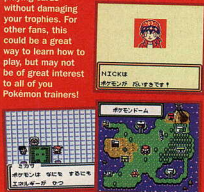

POKÉMON PINBALL 4/5 GAME BOY COLOR

You're guaranteed serious fun here! The only downside is that, rather than following the ball around the table, the on-screen view flips from the top to bottom, which can make you feel queasy when you're concentrating! The combination of monster-catching and addictive action is a sure-fire winner though – it certainly was a big hit with us! Now, if we could just evolve one more Pokémon...

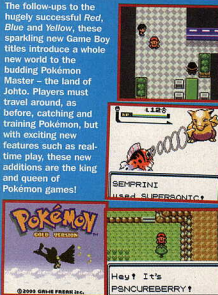

POKÉMON TRADING CARD GAME 4/5 GAME BOY COLOR

This game includes all the elements of the Wizards card game. Anyone who has played the Trading Card Game will love this Game Boy version, as it enables you to practise playing cards without damaging your trophies. For other fans, this could be a great way to learn how to play, but may not be of great interest to all of you Pokémon trainers!

POKÉMON GOLD/SILVER 5/5 GAME BOY COLOR

The follow-ups to the hugely successful Red, Blue and Yellow, these sparkling new Game Boy titles introduce a whole new world to the budding Pokémon Master – the land of Johto. Players must travel around, as before, catching and training Pokémon, but with exciting new features such as real-time play, these new additions are the king and queen of Pokémon games!

POKÉMON PUZZLE CHALLENGE 4/5

GAME BOY COLOR

Pokémon on the Game Boy isn't just about collecting monsters and working out in gyms, you know – oh no! This backwards-Fetris style game has players busting blocks at manic speed, and is totally and utterly addictive. It's the perfect game to fill the time between bouts of monster battling – but are your fingers fast enough?

TM

POKÉMON STADIUM 4/5 NINTENDO 64

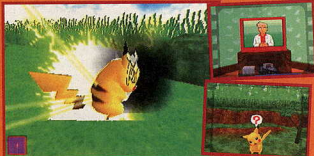

The first N64 Pokémon game comes with an attachment to connect the console to the Game Boy. The Transfer Pak enables you to upload your very own captured and trained Pokémon and battle them in full 3D on the N64. There are a wide range of cups and challenges to complete and when you are ready you can take on the Gym Leaders. There are nine mini-games too!

HEY YOU PIKACHU! 3/5

NINTENDO 64

At the end of the day, the idea of talking to Pikachu is something of a letdown. Our yellow pal seems to find it very hard to understand a lot of what you say and the games that you get to play with him are very simple and ultimately rather dull. Hey You, Pikachu! is a game which is very novel to begin with, and fun for a while, but which quickly becomes boring.

POKÉMON SNAP 5/5 NINTENDO 64

Pokémon Snap is a highly enjoyable and surprisingly addictive game for the Nintendo 64, which sees you travelling around photographing wild Pokémon in their habitats. Unfortunately, it is completed just a little too easily. On the plus side though, you have every reason to keep coming back again and again to try and improve your Pokémon pictures!

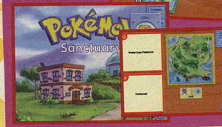

POKÉMON STADIUM 2 5/5 NINTENDO 64

After the storming success of the first Pokémon Stadium game, this 3D battlefest has now burst onto the Pokémon scene, complete with 249 monsters ready for battle. It follows the same idea as the original, but boasts a whole stack of wacky new features, including new tournaments, brain-busting quizzes and more!

POKÉROMS 3/5 PC

PokéRoms are great and teach school curriculum subjects with Pokémon pictures as prizes. Each disc has different puzzles and questions, along with new Pokémon pictures. There are ten discs at present, and with more to follow you should be able to find a favourite Pokémon in the list! Educational fun using Pokémon as treats!

POKÉMON PUZZLE LEAGUE 4/5 NINTENDO 64

This N64 Pokémon game will have you bashing your joystick frantically in a move-blocks-or-die puzzlefest to end all puzzlefests. Crazy addictive, this Tetris-inspired game sparked furious rivalries in the normally mild-mannered Pokémon World team, the likes of which haven't been seen since Karen had a clamp-down and banned unicycle racing in the office.

MONSTER OF THE MONTH

A LEGEND IN HIS LAND, THE 146TH POKÉMON MOLTRES IS AN AWESOME SIGHT TO BEHOLD, AND HE HAS BEEN GIVEN THE VERY IMPORTANT HONOUR OF BECOMING OUR SECOND MONSTER OF THE MONTH. CUT HIM OUT AND ADD HIM TO YOUR POKÉMON WORLD TRADING CARD COLLECTION...

Moltres

Weakness:
Water and Electric

146

Type: Fire/Flying Height: 6' 7" Weight: 132lbs

Star Attack: Swift

This powerful attack is extremely quick and effective against most enemies. Flapping its powerful wings, Moltres creates a gust of wind sending some extremely sharp pokéshurikens into your opponent. Who wants to be on the receiving end of something as hard-hitting as that? Not us.

The last mystical flying Pokémon is made entirely of flames. If startled, it will vanish as quickly as it appeared.
