The Ultimate Spelling Test

POKÉMON TRAINERS

ACROSS the land have been toiling away for years to become the Ultimate Pokémon Master, but over in the States, Pokéfans were recently challenged to train for a new title – Pokémon Master Speller! In an event hosted by Comedy Central's resident wise guy Ben Stein, 30 young dictionary lovers had their skills put to the test as they spelt out words such as Voltorb, Charmander and Kangaskhan. The 'Spelling Bee' event focused on those pesky letter-shaped Unown, with the winner – one Mitchell Squires of California – receiving a Pokémon Crystal trophy and a $2000 mutual college fund. Just proves that grumpy teachers really do know what they're talking about when they tell you that spelling is important. Right, B-U-L-B-A-S-U... no hang on, that's not right. Blimey, it's tricky...

Pokémon In Space!

NINTENDO'S ANNUAL show, Spaceworld, takes place this month in Japan, and we'll be there to check it out! The company will be unveiling details of a range of exciting new titles for the GameCube, like Super Smash Bros Melee and Pikmin, plus Game Boy Advance titles. Those in the know are also speculating that Nintendo might be releasing information on the exciting new GBA Pokémon title – currently known as Pokémon Johto League Champions – which should go on sale in Japan next year. There has been much talk of showcasing the link-up options between GameCube and GBA, which the Pokémon game is likely to utilise, so fingers crossed, we might be getting some very exciting news!

We'll be jetting off there shortly to get the lowdown on just what those folk at Nintendo are up to, so be sure to check back next month and find out just what our Poké-chums are planning for the next generation of gaming.

CELEBI SET TO STAR IN STADIUM 2

SNIPARKS

WHEN POKÉMON STADIUM 2 hits the shelves in October, fans of Celebi are in for a real treat. The mysterious time-travelling Pokémon can't be caught anywhere in the Gold and Silver games, just like my good self, but super-skilled Stadium 2 trainers will find the little creature lurking on the N64 title. Now, I'm not going to spoil it by telling you exactly how to get to Celebi – you're going to have to be pretty hot to catch up with him though! Of course, those who caught up with Nintendo's Celebi Tour this month will already have become friendly with the green fella... turn to page 6 and you'll see just what we mean!

MORE TV SHOWS!

POKÉFANS WHO ARE lucky enough to own a spangly Region 1 DVD player (that's one that plays American discs to you and me) can now enjoy the third Pokémon movie from the comfort of their own armchairs, as the DVD was released at the end of August. Tracking it down might be a little bit tricky though.

GAME CRAZY!

POKÉMON SEEM TO have a habit of winning prizes, topping charts and earning themselves praise – only last month, the British Association of Toy Retailers voted the Pokémon Trading Card Game Craze Of The Year 2000/2001. Meanwhile, in the world of videogames, Pokémon continued to dominate the charts, occupying an enormous six of the top ten Game Boy places, with Pokémon Gold still ruling the Pokéroost at number one!

The Power of Three

THE LATEST BIG screen Pokémon outing, Pokémon 3, blasted into cinemas in July, proving all those doubters wrong. The movie took a healthy £261,000 in its first weekend, and was the fifth best-selling film of the week, with the mighty Shrek towering at number one. However, many movie-goers expecting to receive a free trading card were left disappointed. Sadly, there were no extra goodies to be had, and it was left down to Ash, Eteí and their Poképal to give film-goers their money's worth. Of course, they did us proud, and the film was hugely popular with Pokéfans across the UK. Let's just hope that the fourth film, starring Celebi, makes it over from Japan so we can enjoy even more movie mayhem!

Celebi Goes On The Road!

IN HONOUR of the mysterious Pokémon Celebi, Nintendo is this month organising a nationwide roadshow – the Pokémon Celebi Tour – at which Pokéfans will be able to download the rarest, most sought after treasure in the Pokémon family onto their Gold and Silver carts. The POKÉMON WORLD crew are heading off there as we speak, so we'll bring you a full report next month, but if these exciting pictures of the French roadshow are anything to go by, it's going to be a pretty good do!

As we mentioned over on page 5, the elusive Celebi is buried deep in Pokémon Stadium 2, which goes on sale in this country on 19 October. However, visitors to one of the Toys 'R' Us stores hosting the event will not only be amongst the first to play the game in this country, but will also have the opportunity to qualify for daily Pokémon Stadium 2 championships. All 64 players in these championships will receive a cartridge with Celebi on it, plus the coveted title of Nintendo Official Celebi Distributor, whilst everyone who has their Gold or Silver cart will receive one Celebi, meaning that by the time you read this, the groovy green will be officially in circulation!

With Pokémon Crystal now shimmering temptingly on the horizon, young Weedle made his way over to the official American site to have a nose around this month. Our wriggling little Internet expert was pretty impressed with what he found there too – not only does it boast some particularly funky Flash animation, but it's packed with

There's a whole section devoted to the new features in the game, plus a guide to the basics for newcomers. Friendly types can send special Crystal cards to their chums, and there are tonnes of games to try your hand at. The site even boasts a handy interactive map of Johto, with a stack of useful information on each area. If you're planning to explore the exciting world of Crystal, this is the only place to go!

AFTER THE STORMING success of the first two volumes, Action Man is back for yet more animated adventures in video. Backed up by his support crew 'Team Xtreme', Alex Mann, AKA Action Man, endlessly battles again renegade scientists, international terrorists and the deadly X in The Acceleration Games. Three adrenaline-fueled episodes take him and his team from the bottom of the ocean to the Masterdome UK, where the young hero must defeat the evil Asazi from starting World War III! In a day's work for the supercharged superhero!

at just £9.99, Volume 3: Out Of The Shadows is available to buy on 24 September, but thanks to the top folk at Century Fox Home Entertainment, we've got ten copies to give away PLUS ten cool Dorling Kindersley Action Man books to go with them.

CRYSTAL PREVIEW

POKÉMON CRYSTAL

THE MISTS ARE CLEARING...
IS IT GOING TO BE A CRYSTAL BALL?

GOODNESS GRACIOUS! IS Christmas really just around the corner, or is it us? It's a scary thought for parents all over Christendom, but the yuletide season isn't all that far away, and you can be sure that Pokémon Crystal is going to be high at the top of every wish list when it does come. But the question is, is it worth Santa spending his hard earned money on it, especially if you've already got Pokémon Gold or Silver? What exactly have those Japanese geniuses changed this time?

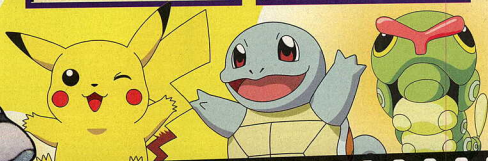

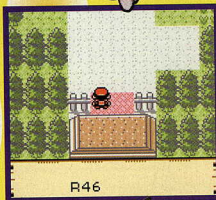

POKÉMON
WORLD

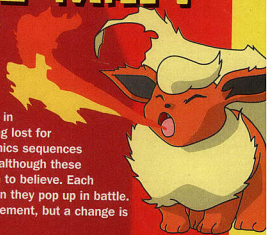

TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY BOY (OR GIRL)

THERE'S no denying that Pokémon Crystal is pretty much the same adventure as you'll find in Gold and Silver, but there have been many superb innovations made with the design of the Pokémon RPG adventure on this cart. Just as Pokémon Yellow came along and blew the Red and Blue adventures out of the water, Crystal promises to expand on the action seen in Gold and Silver quite a lot. The graphics have been tweaked here and there, and a few Pokémon stats and hiding places have been altered. Not major stuff, but improvements certainly. The biggest change for many Pokéfans (especially female ones!) will be the option at the start to play as a boy or a girl trainer. The new female trainer provides players with uniquely designed maps and menus, as well as a new backpack displaying her special gear.

POKÉMON ON THE MAP!

IF YOU BUY this game you'll also find an all-new Pokédex with improved graphics and never before revealed information, plus improved navigation thanks to a wooden sign which pops up on the screen every time you set foot in a new route or city. No more getting lost for you! There are also improved graphics sequences every time you start a new battle, although these aren't as exciting as we were given to believe. Each monster has a brief animation when they pop up in battle. It's only a couple of frames of movement, but a change is as good as a rest, surely?

Now, what did you say your name was?

▶ Boy
Girl

Are you a boy?
Or are you a girl?

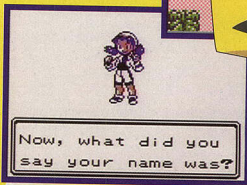

▶ YES
NO
Could I get your phone number?

UNKNOWN QUANTITY

AS THE OPENING animation suggests, the Unowns also take a central role in the latest version of the game. Just like in Pokémon 3, you'll learn a whole lot more about these little bendy critters, and their origins. There are also brand new puzzles in the Ruins of Alph to take on, as well as a greater role for the legendary Pokémon Suicune, who pops up as a collectable monster in far more places than in Gold and Silver.

Now, what did you
say your name was?

CUT OFF

ONE PROBLEM THAT has dogged this release for months has been the difficulties of translating the Mobile Phone link-up option offered in Japan to the Western networks... which is why the option hasn't been included at all! In Japan, you see, there is only one mobile phone company, and we have lots and lots over here, so it's impossible! Never mind, though - you'll still be able to try out the game's other link options, including Game Link, Infrared Port and N64 Transfer Pak - plenty of opportunities for monster trading there!

THE LAST WORD

By far the most impressive and hi-tech Pokémon RPG so far, Pokémon Crystal is looking like a pretty exciting prospect, with some cool improvements throughout. It is, of course, only a new version of the existing games, just as Pokémon Yellow was to Red and Blue, but the various tweaks, like altered locations and frequencies of Pokémon, add to the experience. Those who've waited patiently for the new title are in for a real treat, because this is going to be the most advanced GBC Pokémon game to date! It just shows that good things do come to those who wait!

ASK Professor YEW

Ahem. Hello, yes, one and all, nice to be addressing you today. You may not have heard of me before. My colleagues Professor Oak and Professor Elm no doubt are more familiar, but I prefer to stay out of the limelight, even though there are some who rightly say that I am the greatest Pokémon expert in the whole of Johto, Kanto and Great Britain combined! But I couldn't possibly comment. Let's get on with solving your Pokémon problems...

WHERE'S THE WATERFALL?

YO PROFESSOR YEW!

I was wondering if you could help me here... I have just got all of the eight badges in Pokémon Silver, and I am ready to face the League. The only problem is that I need the HM Waterfall in order to get there... but I don't know how to get it! Please please pleeeeee help me!
Rose Cleary

Well Rose,

To get this admittedly elusive but nonetheless crucial HM, you'll have to fly off to Mahogany Town, and from there to Route 44. This leads eventually to the Ice Path, a horribly slippery place full of interesting Pokémon. You'll find the Waterfall HM in here, at the corner of a tricky ice maze. But I'm not telling you how to get through the maze! Ha ha!

SEEKING THE STONE

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

I think Pokémon are the best. I have all the Game Boy games and I was wondering where you find the Metal Coat and Solar Stone in Pokémon Gold? Please help me!
Michael Ashby

Well, Michael,

I seem to remember that if you want the Metal Coat you have to first defeat the Elite Four, in order to gain passage to the S.S. Aqua. In here you'll more than likely find a man who has lost his little granddaughter. Fight the sailor below decks to find her with the Captain. You'll get the Metal Coat as a reward! As for the Solar Stone (I think you mean Sun Stone!) this can be gained by winning in the National Park Bug Catching Contest. Get practising, young dude!

CELEBI SQUARES

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.
I've got two questions to ask:

1. How do you get Celebi in Pokémon Gold?
 2. Are there any new Pokémon in Pokémon Crystal?
- Simon Stead

Well, Simon, Sad news on the first question. Unless you know someone who has Celebi already, or an Xploder code to give you Celebi, there's only one way to get one! Those mysterious people at a company called Nintendo will give the Pokémon exclusively to young trainers that attend official Nintendo events, just like Me. Their seasoned trainers will link-up with you and download it. This is the honest way, at least. And there are no new Pokémon in the Crystal title, though you'll find that the elusive Suicune plays a much more prominent role, and is well worth catching! I have one myself - very good for warding off burglars.

ASK PROFESSOR YEW

FEELING FAINT

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

I think I have a really tough team in Pokémon Gold and I was wondering if you could tell me, from the depths of your soul, the answers to these tricky Pokémon questions:

1. My Eevee evolved into Umbreon at Level 51 and learnt Moonlight at Level 52. He's now at Level 66, but he's past the level he learns Faint Attack and there isn't a TM of it, so is there any other way I can teach him it?
2. In Pokémon Gold, where do you catch Smeargle, Remoraid, Sunkern and Pikachu because I want the cute little Pichu? Plus, I know that you catch Natu in the Ruins of Alph, but I can't find him anywhere! Can you please help me? Kearon

Well, Kearon,

Your Umbreon not being able to perform Faint Attack is most perplexing. Mine learnt it easy as pie, but I then I deleted the move anyway, Kearon, because it's pretty rubbish as far as damage goes. So don't worry about it. Both Smeargle and, as you say, Natu can be found quite easily in the Ruins of Alph. Really, I don't know what your problem is, young man. In those little Game Boy interpretations of Pokémon training, you have to wander around in long grass for HOURS sometimes, so just do it! Remoraid is available on Route 44 when you go fishing, Sunkern can be found near the National Park on Route 24 and everyone's inexplicable favourite, Pikachu, can be caught only on Route 2. Which is a long way away, so get roaming!

I'm quite tired now by all these impertinent questions, and there's a lot more research to be done before I can retire for the evening. But if there are any reasonable questions about Pokémon training you need answering, I'm available at the following address:

NEXT MONTH,
POKÉFANS!

MEW WHO?

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

I hear rumours about some secret

Pokémon called Flarth, Missingno and Mewthree. Can you tell me if you can name some other Pokémon? Also can you give me some information on each of these strange Pokémon please? Tanya Mehmet

Well, Tanya,

This is a silly old chestnut. Fiddlesticks and Flapdoodle! Missingno is a genuine blip in the game, and not an exciting creature at all. Flarth and Mewthree DO NOT EXIST... and I should know! These fools that make up this tripe about secret Pokémon cost us Professors a fortune looking for them, and rest assured, there are no such things at all. Don't waste time looking for any others either, unless it's for a legendary Pokémon like Suicune, which really does exist. No one else ask a similar question, just accept the fact that it's all lies. As if!

EVOLVING EEVEE

DEAR PROFESSOR YEW.

Me and my friend Dean have both got Pokémon Gold and Silver and we want to know how to get an Umbreon. We have tried many things but no result, so will you please tell us how to get one? Simon B.

A

Well, Simon and Dean, There is indeed only one way to evolve a cuddly little Eevee into a mighty black Umbreon. Firstly, the Eevee must be very happy and like you. You could try bribing it, but that won't work. When the Eevee is ready to evolve, stop it doing so unless it is night. Only at night will it turn into the desired Umbreon. Good luck, young trainers!

STEP SIX

- 6. Time to make those strange random swirls look like the genuine article. Following the lines you have added at each side, add another line to create a strip.

STEP SEVEN

- 7. You now have all the shapes in place – time to outline Suicune's shape. Follow the drawing above and go over the lines you need to with heavy pencil.

STEP EIGHT

- 8. Nearly there now – all you have left to do is fill in the details. Add the eyes, mouth and leg markings, then colour or shade your magnificent creature as you wish.

STEP THREE

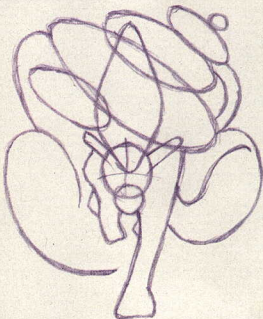

STEP FOUR

- 3. More sausages for the next step... mmm, tasty! Draw another two overlapping ovals as above, and a little circle at the top. You now have all the body shapes for the legendary dog!

- 4. Now things start to get a little bit tricky! At this stage you need to add the legs and the ears. Study the picture above very carefully and then give it a try!

STEP FIVE

- 5. Time to add Suicune's swirls! Don't be put off - it's not as hard as it looks. Just make sure you put them in on both sides! Now we're really getting somewhere...

HOW TO DRAW SUICUNE

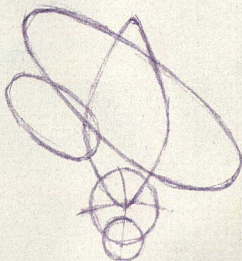

THE STAR OF CRYSTAL IS A FINE FIGURE OF A MONSTER, BUT A TRICKY FELLA TO DRAW! WORRY NOT THOUGH, COS WE'RE HERE TO SHOW YOU HOW...

STEP ONE

1. To begin, draw a circle in the middle of the page, with a smaller circle overlapping at the bottom. Now create a leaf-shape, starting from the middle of the circle.

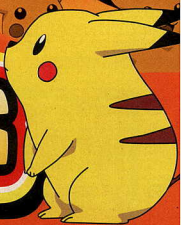

STEP TWO

2. They may not look like much, but these ovals (the sausage-shaped bits!) actually form the main part of Suicune's body. Draw them carefully to overlap the leaf shape.

THIRD TIME UNLUCKY

Dear POKÉMON WORLD,

I recently went to see Pokémon 3 at a local cinema. I thought when we arrived and bought our tickets we would receive a free Eteci card. We did not receive one. The person who sold us our tickets said they did not have any cards to give out with this movie. It stated in issue 7 of your magazine that you got one. Can you help?

Andrew Gibson

Thanks for your letter, Andrew. When we reported on the movie in issue seven, it was only out in America, where they WERE giving out Eteci cards. Unfortunately, somebody somewhere decided that over here, we weren't going to receive any extras at all – just a ticket and a big smile from the person in the booth! So you weren't swindled by your local cinema – there really are no cards available for this movie!

GANDY MAN

Dear POKÉMON WORLD,

Hi! My name is Christian. Pokémon is one of my favourite things. I have Pokémon Yellow and am getting Blue. I know the Rare Candy cheat for Blue and Red, but don't know Yellow's. Do you know?

Thanks,
Christian Barnett, Bilston

Of course we do, Christian – we know everything. Well, a bit of stuff, anyway. Quite a lot about Pokémon, at any rate. Right, um, the Xploder Rare Candy cheat for Yellow is $0D49CDD3. If you have access to the Internet, though, Christian, why not try logging on to the Blaze Web site at www.x-plorer.co.uk – you'll find a whole Poképile of Xploder codes there!

KELAR WHO?

Dear POKÉMON WORLD,

I read your magazine quite often. I just want to say I've got Pokémon Green in English. I got it from Spain, but they are all Japanese names – Bulbasaur is Incon, Rattata is Kelar and Pidggy is Bdoos. It is hard to get used to but after a while it's alright – you soon get to know it. From your best mate and pal, Joe Swain, Ilkeston

Thanks for your letter, Joe! You're very lucky getting hold of an English copy of Green, which – in case other readers are wondering – was an early Japanese Pokémon game later replaced by Blue. And we know all about how confusing it can be when Pokémon have Japanese names – when Russ was trying to play the Japanese version of the second GBC trading card game recently, his head nearly exploded!

ON THE CARDS

Dear POKÉMON WORLD,

I have noticed an offer in POKÉMON WORLD magazine in which Pokémon cards can be traded or – in my case – bought by Pokémon shops. I would like to know how I can sell them at the prices which have been mentioned in the magazine. Thank you very much for your help!

Nima, Brighton

Well Nima, the best way to get rid of valuable trading cards is usually to haggle with your friends! However, if you do want to sell them, try giving Trotters a call on 0208 9588663 – they might just be able to help!

GAMEBOY ADVANCE

WORMS IN MECHANICAL SUITS. INDIANA JONES-STYLE ADVENTURERS AND THE LOST CITY OF ATLANTIS... AND ALL ON THE WORLD'S MOST ADVANCED HANDHELD!

NEWS

ELECTRICAL RETAILER DIXONS is mounting a campaign for a new style of Game Boy Advance – specifically, a Game Girl Advance! The company recently announced sales figures which show that for the first time girls are buying more consoles than boys. Apparently, since the GBA launched, 52% of the machine's sales (through Dixons at least) have been to female gamers, and to reflect this the company is approaching Nintendo with a request for a limited edition 'Game Girl Advance'. Will it happen? Well... maybe. A while back Nintendo did actually produce a limited edition pink 'Game Girl Color', so a 'GGA' may well already be on the way!

ATLANTIS: THE LOST EMPIRE

PUBLISHERDISNEY INTERACTIVE
PRICE£34.99

BASED ON THE forthcoming Walt Disney animated movie, Atlantis: The Lost Empire lets you slip into the shoes of the characters from the film as they set out to uncover the secrets of the ancients. You see the 'Lost City Of Atlantis' is... well, still lost. However, Milo Whitmore, a rich adventurer with a submarine, plans to find it again and prove that his grandfather – who always claimed the place existed – wasn't a total nutter. Or something like that. What this basically comes down to is a game with a mixture of playing styles which follows the plot of the movie. You must explore mysterious caves and strange ships, delve into huge underwater cities (the clue is in the title, people!) and deal with all manner of unfriendly individuals who are out to thwart your efforts. Atlantis: The Lost Empire is an arcade adventure with 18 levels all based on specific scenes from the film. You begin, for example, exploring your submarine, The Ulysses, in a side-scrolling platform style and go on to pilot various vehicles. Graphically the game is outstanding, particularly the cut-scenes, and there is enough variety to keep you occupied for ages!

Stuart travels through cowboy levels, racing levels, even a crazy golf section on his quest to return to the bosom of his family, and you'll very likely want to take the trip with him!

NEWS

NOT CONTENT WITH impressing everyone on Earth with the latest Tony Hawk titles on the GBC and GBA, Activision has added another well-known sporting hero to its growing brand of extreme sports titles. Shaun Palmer's Pro Snowboarder will no doubt capture the spirit of stand-up-sledging on the GBC and GBA this autumn in much the same way that his stable-mate Tony did with Pro Skating 2. Not enough? Well, hardened skating bods will sing hosanna at the news that Tony Hawk's Pro Skating 3 for the GBC is released later in the year as well.

PLAY YOUR CARDS RIGHT!

Another busy month in the wonderful world of Pokémon trading cards, with an updated price guide which includes the more recent expansions. We also have confirmation on some new promo cards and the final details for the Super Trainer Showdown. Stay tuned!

NEW PROMOS

SOME OF THE most difficult cards to find can be the Promo cards, and more are becoming available all the time. We have just discovered that new Pikachu and a Hitmontop promos are coming into circulation. No confirmation has been received about the possibility of a UK release, but you may be able to buy them online.

NO UK MOVIE PROMOS

WE HAVE RECEIVED a few letters recently asking why there were no Promo cards for movie-goers. In some American screenings the Entei Promo card was distributed but no cards have been handed over in the UK this time around. We have also had reports from Europe that the Promos have been missing as well. Have any of you received promos from the cinema? If so, which ones?

SUPER TRAINER SHOWDOWN

AT LAST THE waiting is over. The UK qualifiers for the World Championship in America are ready to go. The event will be held at Thorpe Park, Chertsey and invites are being handed out through local leagues. There is a strict limit to the number of competitors, but if you have not received your invite you may still have time to register by calling Wizards of the Coast direct. The number is 08457 125599. On the day only one adult is allowed to accompany the competitor, as there will be a large amount of matches to play throughout the day.

VIDEO EXTRA

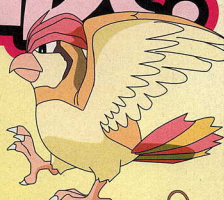

US STORES ARE stocking up and getting ready to let loose the Lord of the Unknown Tower on VHS and DVD. Just like the previous movie releases a free Promo card will be included inside when you buy these items. The card is another Unown character card to go with the cards in the new Neo Discovery expansion.

TRADING CARDS

Wizards of the Coast has just launched a new series of trading cards based around the tales of Harry Potter and his friends. We went along to the world launch of the new game to see what wonders lie in the Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry.

THE VENUE

THE LONDON GUILDHALL was the location chosen to become Hogwarts, and hundreds of guests and members of the press gathered to enroll. With its high ceilings and decorated windows, the building looked every bit the part of the famous school. Drinks were handed out in the library, after which guests were led to the grand hall for a banquet of pure trading cards. After a short speech from the Head Prefect, the fireworks went off and the students gathered around the tables for the main course.

THE FULL MONTY

AFTER THE SHOW we took the time to find out the full details about the future of the Harry Potter Trading Card Game from the Wizard of the Coast team. Just like Pokémon, Wizards intends to have a national league with weekly meetings arranged in the many different regions. Extra surprises will be available for league members, including special promotional cards. All this is due to start next year once everybody has got to grips with the game.

LET'S PLAY CARDS

THERE ARE A total of 116 different Harry Potter cards in this series. The game begins by selecting a character to play as and then placing it into the Wizard/Witch spot. Each player shuffles their remaining cards and then deals seven game cards to himself. Before any spells or creatures can be used the player must attend lessons by playing Lesson cards. Each player has two goes per turn, so multiple Lessons can be played. Once enough studying has been done you can then start to attack your opponent with creatures and spells. Damage is done by turning over cards from your opponent's deck into their discard pile – when all the cards are gone the game is over.

LESSON CARDS

Lessons are required before magic can be used, so you will need to have plenty of these.

CHARACTER CARDS

Holographic Character cards are the special cards in the deck. These cards have extra abilities to help you win the game.

CREATURE CARDS

Magical beasts can be summoned to damage your opponent. They cannot attack first round.

SPELL CARDS

Spells are used to either damage your opponent or gain an advantage. There are loads of different spells you can use.

ADVENTURE CARDS

These cards set challenges for your opponent to overcome. You can only have one Adventure card in play and both turns are needed to play the card.

Which Witch?

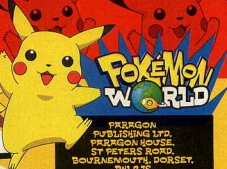

THE HARRY POTTER Trading Card Game is seriously good fun, bringing to life the magic from the Hogwarts school. Budding witches and wizards can enroll by popping down to the local shops and grabbing an 82-card starter deck. Booster packs will contain 11 different cards to enhance the game even more, with extra Spell, Creature, Character and Adventure cards, including rare and holographic cards. This magical game is sure to be a big success, so wave your wand and get yourself enrolled for college!

POKÉMON RED/BLUE 4/5 GAME BOY
In September 1999 Pokémon arrived in the UK and went on to sell over a million copies. A small boy is given his first Pokémon by Professor Oak and asked to catch and train all 151 Pokémon to become a Pokémon Master. You must train your monster to fight and then try to outwit the wild Pokémon hiding in long grass and caves. These games started it all, and are still great to play today!

POKÉMON YELLOW 4/5 GAME BOY
After the success of the cartoon series, Nintendo released this follow up to the first two games. Pokémon Yellow is similar to Pokémon Red and Blue only you will receive Pikachu as your very first Pokémon and he will follow you around all the time like the cartoon. You will still need to trade to catch 'em all but other than that, it is almost the same game as Red and Blue.

POKÉMON PINBALL 4/5 GAME BOY
You're guaranteed serious fun here! The only downside is that, rather than following the ball around the table, the on-screen view flips from the top to bottom, which can make you feel queasy when you're concentrating! The combination of monster-catching and addictive action is a sure-fire winner though - it certainly was a big hit with us! Now, if we could just evolve one more Pokémon...

POKÉMON TRADING CARD GAME 4/5 GAME BOY
This game includes all the elements of the Wizards of the Coast card game. Anyone who has played the Trading Card Game will love this Game Boy version as it enables you to practise playing cards without damaging your trophies. For other fans, this could be a great way to learn how to play, but may not be of great interest to all of you Pokémon trainers!

GOLD/SILVER 5/5 GAME BOY
The follow-ups to the hugely successful Red, Blue and Yellow, these sparkling new Game Boy titles introduce a whole new world to the budding Pokémon Master - the land of Johto. Players must travel around, as before, catching and training Pokémon, but with exciting new features such as real-time play, these new additions are the king and queen of Pokémon games!

POKÉMON PUZZLE CHALLENGE 4/5 GAME BOY
Pokémon on the Game Boy isn't just about collecting monsters and working out in gyms, you know - oh no! This backwards-Tetris style game has players busting blocks at manic speed, and is totally and utterly addictive. It's the perfect game to fill the time between bouts of monster battling - but are your fingers fast enough?

POKÉMON STADIUM 4/5 NINTENDO 64
The first N64 Pokémon game comes with an attachment to connect the console to the Game Boy. The Transfer Pak enables you to upload your very own captured and trained Pokémon and battle them in full 3D on the N64. There are a wide range of cups and challenges to complete and when you are ready you can take on the Gym Leaders. There are nine mini-games too!

HEY YOU PIKACHU! 3/5 NINTENDO 64
At the end of the day the idea of talking to Pikachu is something of a letdown. Our yellow pal seems to find it very hard to understand a lot of what you say and the games that you get to play with him are very simple and ultimately rather dull. Hey You, Pikachu! is a game which is very novel to begin with, and fun for a while, but which quickly becomes boring.

POKÉMON SNAP 5/5 NINTENDO 64
Pokémon Snap is a highly enjoyable and surprisingly addictive game for the Nintendo 64, which sees you travelling around photographing wild Pokémon in their habitats. Unfortunately, it is completed just a little too easily. On the plus side though, you have every reason to keep coming back again and again to try and improve your Pokémon pictures!

POKÉMON STADIUM 2 5/5 NINTENDO 64
With a few months still to go until its UK release, this 3D Pokéfest is nonetheless worthy of mention. It follows the same idea as the original Pokémon Stadium, but boasts a whole stack of new features including new tournaments, quizzes and absolutely loads of three-dimensional Pokémon to do battle with. Roll on 1 October, we say...

POKÉMON PUZZLE LEAGUE 4/5 NINTENDO 64
This N64 Pokémon game will have you bashing your joystick frantically in a move-blocks-or-die puzzlefest to end all puzzlefests. Crazy addictive, this Tetris-inspired game sparked furious rivalries in the normally mild-mannered POKÉMON WORLD team, the likes of which haven't been seen since Karen had a clamp-down and banned unicycle racing in the office.

POKÉMON ROMS 3/5 PC
Pokémon Roms are great and teach school curriculum subjects with Pokémon pictures as prizes. Each disc has different puzzles and questions, along with new Pokémon pictures. There are ten discs at present, and with more to follow you should be able to find a favourite Pokémon in the list Educational Fun using Pokémon as treats!
